INA & MURRAY MANASTER

Join us in celebrating the enduring impact of Ina and Murray Manaster, 2026 Honor Ball honorees.

Their nearly two decades of dedication to HonorHealth — from Foundation Board service to founding the Women's Board — has advanced excellence in care, innovation and community engagement. We honor their vision, generosity and unwavering support for healthcare in the Valley.

HONOREES

Murray and Ina Manaster's engagement with HonorHealth began in 2007, when Murray joined the Scottsdale Healthcare Foundation Board at the encouragement of a friend. Though originally from Chicago – home to some of the nation's most renowned medical institutions – Murray was deeply impressed by the quality of care, forward-thinking leadership and community focus he found at HonorHealth. As the system grew in scope and reputation, attracting leading physicians, investing in cutting-edge technology and pursuing groundbreaking research, the Manasters became two of its most steadfast advocates.

Ina's leadership took on a transformative new dimension in 2023 when she founded the HonorHealth Foundation Women's Board alongside her friend, Penny Gunning. Under Ina's vision, the Women's Board brings together seasoned philanthropists and emerging community leaders to serve as HonorHealth's ambassadors – educating the Valley about the hospital's clinical advancements and championing worldclass healthcare close to home. Her role as founder remains a defining contribution to HonorHealth's philanthropic strength.

Born and raised in Chicago, Murray graduated from the University of Miami in 1963 and launched Culinary Foods, Inc. while still in college. The company grew to employ more than 1,500 people and became a leader in the national food service and airline catering industries before being sold to Tyson Foods in 1994. Murray remained with Tyson as CEO until 1998 and has continued his civic leadership in Phoenix, serving as Managing Partner of CMJ Investments and as an HonorHealth Foundation Board member since 2007.

Murray and Ina moved to Phoenix in 1998, after she served as Vice President of Sales and Marketing for Culinary Foods, where she also led R&D and customer service. A devoted community leader, she has held key roles with Florence Crittenton, Arizona's Children, SEEDS, Trends Charitable Fund and ASU Women & Philanthropy, among others.

Together, Murray and Ina are passionate entertainers, supporters of the arts and champions of community wellbeing. They share one son, Jason, and delight in their granddaughters, Anne and Kate.

DEAR HONOR BALL FRIENDS AND GUESTS,

Welcome to Honor Ball 2026 and thank you for joining us for an unforgettable evening inspired by The Great Gatsby.

For nearly five decades, the Honor Ball has celebrated the extraordinary power of philanthropy and the remarkable community that makes HonorHealth's mission possible. Tonight, we gather to honor Ina and Murray Manaster and to celebrate the generosity, compassion and vision that have shaped healthcare across the Valley.

For both of us, HonorHealth is deeply personal. One of us watched her mother receive extraordinary care during a long hospitalization, where doctors and nurses treated not just a patient, but an entire family with patience and kindness. The other experienced firsthand how HonorHealth clinicians protected and ultimately saved her father's life, showing courage, innovation and compassion when it mattered most. These moments made HonorHealth feel like family, and they are the reason this evening means so much to us.

Serving as co-chairs has been a meaningful way to give back to the community that has given our families so much. It has been a joy to work alongside our passionate committee to create an evening that feels elegant, heartfelt and full of connection – an evening that reflects the spirit of this incredible community.

We are especially proud that the proceeds from tonight's gala will support the HonorHealth Innovation Endowment, supporting clinical care, advancing cutting-edge medical practices, enhancing access to innovative treatments and ensuring ongoing education for healthcare professionals.

In addition, your compassion and kindness will strengthen programs that meet people where they are, supporting behavioral health, specialty care, expanded access for families in need and continued innovation that keeps HonorHealth at the forefront of world-class care.

On behalf of HonorHealth Foundation and the Honor Ball Committee, thank you for your visionary generosity, your friendship and your commitment. We are incredibly grateful to celebrate with you tonight!

With sincere gratitude,

Andrea Robertson & Justine Hurry

VIRGINIA G. PIPER

FOUNDER AND BENEFACTOR THE HONOR BALL

HonorHealth Foundation is profoundly grateful for the leadership of founder Virginia G. Piper, whose generosity set an example that still stands today.

With exceptional intelligence and grace, Virginia committed herself to the vocation of philanthropy, transforming the gifts of a single life into an enduring humanitarian legacy.

Virginia was an engaged, modern philanthropist. In 1976, drawing on the success of the annual Crusaders' Ball, a black-tie event for St. Francis Hospital in her hometown of Evanston, Illinois, she suggested a similar event to the administrators of then-Scottsdale Memorial Hospital. She envisioned a gala that would build awareness of the hospital's importance to the region and raise philanthropic funds for its ongoing programs and expansion.

Virginia was the catalyst for community engagement. She offered to underwrite the inaugural ball and collaborated with her dear friend Laura Grafman on the details. The two established The Honor Ball as a celebration of the hospital and the generosity of our community, a tradition that endures to this day.

By naming an annual Honoree, Virginia and Laura launched a tradition that still today celebrates those who have made a significant impact on HonorHealth through their philanthropy. Appropriately, the inaugural Honoree was the late Kenneth M. Piper.

Though we lost Virginia in 1999, her legacy continues to illuminate the power of philanthropy through the Virginia G. Piper Charitable Trust and with the dedicated work of its Trustees.

To this day, The Honor Ball strives to honor her legacy.

With gratitude, we acknowledge the Virginia G. Piper Charitable Trust for providing historical information and photograph.

HONORHEALTH INNOVATION ENDOWMENT

At HonorHealth, innovation isn't just a buzzword, it's how we deliver on our promise to the communities we serve.

At this special time in history, we have access to medical marvels for diseases and injuries, solutions that were unthinkable just a few years ago. Regenerative medicines, futuristic technologies, devices, nutrition and other astonishing medical advancements. Innovation and disruption are coming together at the same time, fueling our ability to be more than an interventional healthcare service provider, but to deliver whole person well-being.

THE HONOR BALL BENEFICIARY

Our mission is clear: to improve the health and well-being of those we serve. Yet in today's rapidly evolving world of medicine, fulfilling that mission demands more than dedication, it requires innovation. The HonorHealth Innovation Endowment exists to advance clinical care by bridging the critical gap between what traditional healthcare funding covers and what the future of medicine demands.

Insurance and reimbursement models sustain today's care, but they do not fund tomorrow's breakthroughs. This endowment ensures we can invest in transformative technologies, pioneering research and bold clinical ideas that redefine patient outcomes. It is our commitment to lead, not follow, in shaping the future of healthcare for our community.

Your visionary support of the HonorHealth Innovation Endowment will fuel the adoption of cutting-edge solutions, enhancing the quality of care we provide while driving progress at the forefront of medical advancements.

Together, we have the power to shape a future defined by health, hope and limitless possibilities. And for that, we are profoundly grateful!

THANK YOU

Thank you for celebrating with us at this year's Honor Ball. Your presence this evening helps strengthen a tradition of philanthropy that directly impacts the health and well-being of our community.

Tonight, we celebrate not only the spirit of generosity, but also the incredible potential of innovation in healthcare. The HonorHealth Innovation Endowment, this year's beneficiary, will fuel groundbreaking ideas, advance patient care and support the next generation of medical discovery.

If you were inspired by what you experienced this evening, we invite you to make a gift in support of the Innovation Endowment. Your contribution helps transform visionary concepts into real-world solutions that improve lives across our community.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR PARTNERSHIP,
YOUR GENEROSITY, AND YOUR BELIEF IN HONORHEALTH'S MISSION.

Todd LaPorte
CEO, HonorHealth

Todd LaPorte was named CEO in 2017 and presides over a rapidly expanding presence for the healthcare system. HonorHealth now encompasses ten acute-care hospitals; more than 100 primary, specialty and urgent care practices; multiple ambulatory surgery centers; a behavioral health hospital; a rehab hospital; a research institute; and vital community services impacting social determinants of health and military preparedness.

But Todd has always put greater emphasis on quality than quantity. Under his leadership, HonorHealth has earned the highest rankings for a multi-hospital system in the Valley from Leapfrog (a hospital safety watchdog by employers) and is the only healthcare system in Arizona with a five-star rating for price transparency. He is also proud of the nursing culture at HonorHealth, which has earned Magnet designation for excellence in nursing in all eligible medical centers. The system is also nationally recognized by Forbes as one of America's Best Places to Work.

Over the last year, his team has forged an exciting agreement under which HonorHealth will serve as the primary clinical affiliate for the new Arizona State University John Shufeldt School of Medicine and Medical Engineering.

Todd serves as an active advocate for philanthropy throughout the system. He and his wife Kelly are generous supporters of the Foundation, contributing their own personal gifts and time as part of a robust community goodwill.

Jared A. Langkilde,
MBA, CFRE
President & CEO
HonorHealth Foundation

Jared A. Langkilde is a passionate and effective advocate for the role of philanthropy in transforming healthcare. He joined HonorHealth Foundation as president and CEO in 2018, leading the organization with a laser focus on its mission for finding cures, saving lives and transforming healthcare.

Under Jared's leadership, the Foundation has consistently increased its annual philanthropic support for HonorHealth. These gifts fund new clinical programs, provide patient and staff resources, secure technology, advance research and deliver vital community services. Philanthropy touches every patient's experience at HonorHealth.

The Foundation has grown not only in size but in fundraising sophistication, evolving to include gifts of real estate, cryptocurrency and closely held securities. In addition, the Foundation was once again named a Top Performer by the Association for Healthcare Philanthropy (ahp.org), the only Arizona hospital foundation to earn this honor, which recognizes fundraising proficiency across dozens of best-practice metrics.

Prior to joining the Foundation, Jared served 20 years in higher education in development and community relations roles. He was recently named to the Board of Trustees for AHP Foundation, the fundraising arm of the leading international association for healthcare philanthropy professionals.

Carter Emerson
Chair, Board of Trustees
HonorHealth Foundation

When Carter Emerson and his wife Susan moved to Scottsdale from the Chicago area in 2013, they found a wonderful community of friends who were committed to making the community a better place to live. Many of those friends were supporters of HonorHealth Foundation and were making an incredible difference in the Foundation's success.

Like many of the Foundation's Trustees, Carter's experiences at HonorHealth inspired him to become more involved and more committed to ensuring exceptional healthcare continues to grow. A Trustee since 2021, Carter was named Chair of the Board of Trustees for 2024-26.

His leadership in action is having a profound impact, as he encourages our Board members to leverage their diverse experiences and talents to drive success in the Foundation's mission.

FOUNDER'S STORY

As a whirlwind of events brought this inner-city Latina from 37th street in Milwaukee to becoming a trauma, critical care & burn surgeon in Phoenix - one thing remains clear: she has a mission to conquer the unimaginable. Demonstrating resilience & unapologetically sincerity throughout her journey, she founded SHIRAH SURGICAL, assembling a highly skilled team committed to patient advocacy and healing complex cases with compassion and integrity. This crew upholds the principle that every person deserves the opportunity to heal, be supported during setbacks, and recover with dignity, reflecting the ideals of The American Dream.
